Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

04/20

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

8. How you will pay the fee  I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order.  I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling*15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:You must check one:*

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

 Incapacity.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

 Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

 Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

Re: Financial Matters/Chapter 7

Dear Mr. Isaacson:

We are pleased that you have requested this law firm to represent you in the above-captioned matter. Lawyers are required, under the Rules of Professional Conduct, to communicate in writing the basis or rate of their fee when beginning the representation of a client. This letter sets forth the terms concerning our representation of you.

You agree to pay our firm an advanced payment fee in the amount of $4,000.00, plus a $338.00 Chapter 7 bankruptcy court filing fee (the "Advanced Payment Retainer"), from which we will credit against our legal services as rendered and advance against any reimbursable costs and expenses, which amount is paid to us for the purpose of establishing our attorney-client relationship.

Should an objection to claim ("Objection") or a Complaint objecting to your discharge or the dischargeability of a claim be filed against you ("Adversary Proceeding"), we will bill you on an hourly basis--to be applied against the Advanced Payment Retainer. Our billing is based on an hourly rate of $450.00 for time expended by me and $300.00 to $375.00 for time expended by the associates of Weissberg and Associates, Ltd. Fractions of hours are computed in increments of one quarter (1/4) of an hour. Some of the work on your case may be done by a paralegal assistant or by a law clerk whose hourly rates are substantially lower; and to the extent that their time is utilized, your overall fee will be reduced.

You shall also be responsible for paying all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by my firm in your representation in any such Objection or Adversary Proceeding, such as filings with courts and government agencies, photocopying, facsimile transmissions, express courier services, messenger services, computerized Westlaw research, travel costs, and other expenses and charges.

Yours truly,

Ariel Weissberg
